

Dear colleague,

Following the success of Norfolk's 1st Suicide Prevention Learning Event in 2017, Norfolk County Council, on behalf of the Suicide Prevention Partnership, are coordinating Norfolk's 2nd Suicide Prevention Learning Event to be held:

On - Wednesday 3rd October
From - 9am – 5pm
At - Central Norwich location

This free event brings together the progress of the Norfolk multi-agency 'I am (really not) okay' Suicide Prevention Strategy, and explores evidence based and innovative opportunities for suicide prevention in Norfolk.

You are invited to save the date in your diaries and express an interest in attending the event via the SMART SURVEY - EXPRESSION OF INTEREST form. So that we can get an idea of delegate numbers, please complete the smart survey asap.

We are looking for a venue in the Bowthorpe area to run an event called 'First Time for Everything'. We need a good space for an art group for 2 – 2.5 hours for older people to 'have a go'. The workshop leader will be hoping to establish a permanent group from this, but for now we want to see if it works. Do you have a community room with access to a sink? Would your residents and/or your local community like to take part in a new activity? Can you help? All costs will be covered. Please contact me on sally.kelly@royalvoluntaryservice.org.uk. Thanks.
